

CAPED 2006 ~ Lake Tahoe: Don't Gamble with your Student's Success October 8-11, 2006

Get ready for the following exciting keynote addresses and breakout sessions!

Keynote Speakers:

Temple Grandin Ph.D., Colorado State University, she tells us about her experience with autism and how she managed to function so remarkably in the outside world.

Michael Hingson, "The Path to Safety", Michael Hingson and his Guide Dog, Roselle, escaped from the World Trade Center together on September 11th.

Kathy Martinez, Director, World Institute on Disability, Kathy Martinez is an internationally recognized disability rights leader specializing in employment, asset building, independent living, international development, diversity, and gender issues

Pre-Convention Sessions

Adapted Physical Education (multiple workshops); Developmentally Delayed Learner Verification;
Non-Verbal Learning Disabilities;

New and "Seasoned" DSPS Coordinators Workshop

This Pre-Convention training is being offered in conjunction with the Chancellor' Office, the Galvin Group, and the Program Management CIG. The CCCCO will reimburse the round trip travel, one night lodging and one day per diem expenses for "New Coordinators" registered for this training. There will be an opportunity for "Seasoned Directors" to participate in individual components of the training.

Please use the attached registration form.

Convention Strands

Potential Strands and Workshops are being developed and will be announced soon,
Watch the Web-site and List-serves!

